Oh! near to us, and dear to us, Is ev - ry dar - ling treasure That

The Southern blood is running fast Through Southern veins to - night Our Yet, though our boys are gone to war, And left the dear ones here, They round the sold - iers fire side Tills home with love and pleas - ure, And pat-riots boys on tent - ed fields, Are eag - er for the fight. On need not heave a sin - gle sigh, Nor shed a sin - gle tear. For while the pat - riots ab - sent be, let's stand by our Com - mittee, And many a hill and many a plain Rifle, Sabre, knife, In gene - rous hearts and op - en hands, each soldier left be - hind him, So

Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1861 by L. GRUNEWALD in the Cl. Off. of the D. C. of the C. S. of the D. of L.
